The Minnesota Duck & Goose Callers Association was founded for the purpose and promotion of improved conservation education. It's primary goals are to provide for increased awareness by sportsmen of waterfowl calling techniques and practices. To this end, the association, through workshops, seminars, and calling competitions will strive to produce educational activities aimed at improving attitudes, ethics, and skills of the Waterfowlers of Minnesota.

Membership in the Duck and Goose Callers Association includes two newsletters per year, current updates on all contests and show events and access to monthly meetings. Monthly meetings include speakers on various outdoor topics, assistance with calling and general organization business. Meetings are held the last Thursday of each month at Cabela's in Rogers from 7:00 to 9:00 PM.

About Our Banquet

The Duck & Goose Callers take great pride in our banquet. We try to make this an affordable family event. Anyone who has attended our banquet will testify that you don't have to spend a fortune to come home with a great items like decoys, guns and boats. There are also ladies and kid prizes. Banquet information will be in the fall newsletter.

All of the proceeds from our banquet go to the calling contests and youth programs.
